Citation Guidelines

No matter what citation formatting style you use, when referencing your sources the following elements will always be required:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type of Resource</th>
<th>Required Citation Elements</th>
<th>Good Citation Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Journal Article | Author(s)
Article title
Journal title
Publication date
Volume
Pagination | Aaronson DW. The "black box" warning and allergy drugs. J Allergy Clin Immunol. 2006;117:40-44

| Book | Author(s)/Editor(s)
Book title
Publisher
Publication location

| Book Chapter | Author(s)/Editor(s)
Chapter title
Author(s)/Editor(s) of the book
Book title
Publisher
Publication location
UpToDate recommended citation guideline:

| Website | Website name
Website publisher
Webpage title
Date the URL was accessed

| Blogs | Author(s)/Editor(s)
Blog title
Blog publisher
Date the URL was accessed
Contribution to a blog:

| Tweets | Author
Twitter username
Tweet title
Date the tweet was posted
Tweet URL | The Health Care Blog (@THCB staff). “What killed Scott Weiland?” 7 Dec. 2015, 1:03 p.m. Tweet. https://t.co/zrepTN27of |

Rev. 12/9/2015